DevDiscuss - Backend Project Documentation

1. Application Overview

DevDiscuss is a developer-focused discussion platform inspired by StackOverflow and GitHub

2. Core Functionalities

User Authentication (Register, Login, JWT-based sessions)
Create, Update, Delete Problems
Post Solutions to Problems
Upvote Problems and Solutions (Unique vote per user)
Mark Solution as Accepted (Problem owner only)
Follow / Unfollow Users
Notifications system
Search, Filter, and Pagination support (future expansion)

3. Full Backend File Structure

devdiscuss/

4. Architecture Notes

- App Router based API architecture. - Drizzle ORM for type-safe SQL queries. - PostgreSQL as

Conclusion & Architecture Summary

DevDiscuss provides a modular, scalable full-stack discussion platform built on Next.js, TypeScript, and PostgreSQL. The system integrates robust authentication, real-time messaging, and high-performance full-text search, ensuring high availability, maintainability, and clean separation of concerns.